from Hon. H. A. Conant, secretary of state,

Acts of the Legislature for 1883.

The other day Judge Mills appointed Sam.
Holmes as guardian ad litem for a prepossessed young lady of 17 years. The Judge said he made the appointment with many misgivings and mental reservations.

The heavy frosts of Saturday and Sunday night did a great amount of damage to the corn and bean crops of this state. Probably about one-half of the bean crop was out of the way of the frost, but there was very little mature corn. Farmers feel rather discouraged.

They have 30 foreign pupils. An additional teacher has been employed in the higher departments.

Parties were in town last week with a lot of Grand Rapids spiral spring buggies for sale. We had the pleasure of riding around town in one of them with our friend E. S.
Hartley of Bangor. We found it to be a very nice, easy riding carriage, a marked improvement over the old style of elliptical springs.

The blind musicians, John and Mary Mc-Kay, gave a couple of their interesting concerts at Longwell's Opera house on Tuesday and Wednesday evenings of last week. Their concerts are good and worthy of patronage, and considering that they are both blind, those who go to hear them can not only pass an enjoyable evening, but at the same time aid the stricken brother and sister to obtain an honorable livelihood.

During the trial of the Hartford Ignorcase, Judge Mills ordered James Minnie to show cause why he should not be punished for assisting in running off some of the People's witnesses, but he was afterwards released. In the course of the same trial Joseph Lanahan, who appeared in the court room drunk and disorderly, was fined $15 and sent to jail 15 days, and in default of payment of the fine to be imprisoned for an additional 30 days.

The Northern believes in temperance and is willing to publish such articles as that subject as meet the approval of its editor, at such times as it may be able to spare the requisite space in its columns. It does not deem it advisable to surrender a specific amount of space each week for any purpose, and communications on the temperance question will be treated the same as those on other topics, and be subject to revision by the editor of the paper. On these conditions it will be pleased to receive articles on the temperance question from any person who chooses to send them.

On Wednesday night of last week a horse belonging to Peter Brummel, Esq., of Vaw-erly was stolen from his barn. On Friday last the animal was found in the barn of Mr.
L. A. Brewer, by whom it had been taken up from the highway. It was ascertained that the animal was stolen by one Jared Village, a colored man residing at or near this village, and after being ridden away by him, it was turned loose. The horse taken at the same time was hidden by Rouse or his wife, but was afterwards produced by him and given to officer McCabe. Rouse was arrested, pleaded guilty and was sentenced to Jackson 18 months.

The eleventh annual inter-state exposition of Chicago, 1883, will open Sept. 5th and close Oct. 20th. As usual, all railroad and steamboat transportation lines will put their rates to Chicago and return on hard pan basis, selling coupon tickets to the exposition. On many of the lines, gentlemen familiar with the business are making arrangements to run general excursions, which have heretofore been profitable to those managing them and cheapened the cost of transportation to the excursionists. As to the exposition itself, we are assured that extraordinary efforts and very large expenses have been made by the managers to render it in all important departments the most instructive and far the most attractive display of its class in America. The local pride of Chicago is fully enlisted in the work, and it is safe to say that no visitor will be disappointed.

The services at the Christian church last Sunday evening, conducted by Elder Brooks, assisted by Elders Harvey and Burns, were very interesting. The subject of discourse was "What think ye of Christ?" The Elder maintained that everyone must answer the question, and that on such answer depended the character and destiny not only of individuals, but of nations. He said there were but three possible answers, viz: Christ was an impostor, Christ was a mere man, or Christ was the son of God and divine. The singing, conducted by Prof. Hutchins aided by Miss Lucie Roe and some of Paw Paw's best vocalists, was much better than is sometimes heard.

J. Britton et al.; continued on terms. Peo-

Our Fire Department.
At the regular monthly meeting of the Paw Paw Fire Department, held at the town hall on Thursday evening of last week, the following officers were elected to serve during the current year, viz: Chief engineer A. W. Showerman, 1st asst. chief E. A. Blackman, 2d asst. chief A. T.
Stevenson, secretary, E. M. Snow; treasurer, O. W. Rowland; foreman of engine company Henry Hopping, 1st asst. foreman O. W.
Rowland, 2d asst. foreman J. L. Tirrell; foreman of hose company Wait, Durkee, 1st asst. foreman Chas. Nash, 2d asst. foreman Seth Allen; foreman hook and ladder company J. J. Paige, 1st asst. foreman J. D.
Smith, 2d asst. foreman J. Rickard. Foreman of the hose company appointed W. M. Kirkwood and Philip Lee as pipe-men, and W. J. Halstead as lieutenant. The outgoing treasurer reported the sum of two dollars and forty-five cents in the treasury, which was turned over to the new treasurer.
The department is thoroughly organized in all its branches and may be relied on to do good work whenever there is any occasion for their services.

The Farmers' Mutual.
There was a meeting of the members of the Farmers' Mutual Insurance company at the town hall in this village on Thursday of last week. The secretary stated the liabilities of the company at the sum of $3164.80 and the estimated contingent liability at about $650. The company has cash on hand amounting to $1100 and about $250 of collectible unpaid assessments. The secretary stated that he thought an assessment of one-fourth of one per cent would wipe out the debts owed by the company, actual and contingent. In response to an inquiry he stated that 145 members had withdrawn from the company since June last.

A warm discussion was had in reference to the suits pending against the company in which Messrs. Wiley and Wilson are seeking to recover for the value of horses burned in the Clifton house barn a couple of years or so since. This discussion was opened by Mr. Crane, attorney for the plaintiffs in those cases, and was participated in by Messrs. W.
Bass, C. W. Young, D. Woodman, G. E.
Breck and others. Some pretty plain talk was indulged in on both sides, and the reporter gathered the impression that somebody thought somebody had not been wholly truthful in reference to those cases and that somebody was not afraid to say so.

A vote was passed instructing the board of directors to press the cases to a final decision in the supreme court. This vote was, on motion of Hon. J. J. Woodman, reconsidered and a resolution adopted reciting that the company had implicit confidence in the board of directors, and advising them to compromise or further litigate the claims according to their own best judgment. After considerable discussion the directors, by a unanimous vote, were advised to make an immediate assessment of one-fourth of one per cent, so as to place the company once more on a business basis. At this juncture, Mr.
H. S. Richards arose and offered to take the risks of the books of the company for five years, at a premium of 85 cents per hundred dollars. This proposition was rejected without a dissenting voice, the members present expressing themselves as determined to stand by the Mutual, through good report and through evil report. Mr. J. J. Woodman thought a surrender would indicate that the farmers had not brains enough, and said enough to run their own insurance business, and advised each one to go home and load his old shot gun to the muzzle, with salt, and then if any agent of stock companies came around to seduce him away from his first love, to meet him with blood in his eye and tell him to "git" but "don't shoot." This brought down the house and the meeting forthwith adjourned.

Iowa prison statistics show the religious training of convicts received and discharged from Oct. 1881 to June 1883 to have been as
